

Funds of the Living Branches Foundation

The Living Branches Foundation was established in July 2010 when the Souderton Mennonite Homes Foundation and the Dock Woods Community Foundation were combined into one entity.

Benevolent Care Funds

Living Branches Benevolent Care Fund: Gifts to this fund are invested for the purpose of providing benevolent care to residents of Living Branches who can no longer afford to pay the full cost of their care.

Agape Fund: Gifts to this fund are invested for the purpose of providing benevolent care to the residents of Souderton Mennonite Homes who can no longer afford to pay the full cost of their care.

Sharing Fund: Gifts to this fund are invested for the purpose of providing benevolent care to the residents of Dock Woods and The Willows of Living Branches who can no longer afford to pay the full cost of their care.

Other Funds

Dock Village Youth Fund: This fund was established to enhance the lives of Dock Village youth and encourage them to do well academically. The fund provides for academic scholarships, and also offers incentives as a means to encourage and reward students. Dock Village is the family housing community at Dock Woods.

Fund for Creative Arts Therapy: This fund will help enhance our residents' lives through the unique healing and connecting power of music, art, and dance.

Fund for Housing for Retired Church Workers: This fund provides assistance to retired Franconia Mennonite Conference ministers and their spouses, either by assisting with the entry fee payment or periodic payments.

Gormay Endowment Fund: Provides funding for the annual Valentine's Celebration at Souderton Mennonite Homes.

Margaret "Peg" Baker Endowed Scholars Fund: This fund, named in memory of a former resident and established by her husband, is used to encourage academic achievement in young persons at Dock Village. Income from the fund provides for intergenerational education and programming opportunities, with the goal of promoting scholarship.

Nursing Scholarship Fund: This fund provides scholarships to employees interested in furthering their education in nursing.
